1. On 21 May 1957 I discussed the administration of the Management Staff generally with [REDACTED] who works with the DD/P group under [REDACTED] formerly was with the Veterans Administration. When he came to this Agency he was first assigned to work for [REDACTED] Chief of the Records Management Staff. He believes that the morale in the Records Management Staff may not be too high primarily because they have not been able to get a records program going in the DD/P area. He then worked for [REDACTED] for several months in the FE Division. He thinks that a lot of good was done in this exercise but said that he was admitted to the area only with the definite understanding that no reports would be made to anyone outside of the Division. He thinks that this is a questionable procedure and that a lot more good would come of the O&M reports if the superiors of the people being looked at were advised of the results thereof.

2. He has been working in the [REDACTED] DD/P area, for several months and believes that John [REDACTED] really is not sincerely interested in having the Management Staff in there, despite the fact that he doesn't say so. Here again, he says that Mr. [REDACTED] is very careful to direct their activities to the places which he wants them to look into and tries in every way possible to avoid any reports being submitted outside of the Division. He says he has found a lot of things in the [REDACTED] which, if known outside, would be a serious reflection on [REDACTED]

3. [REDACTED] says that his contact with [REDACTED] has not been too frequent. Even when he was working in the FE Division for [REDACTED] he merely reported to [REDACTED] could, in turn, report to [REDACTED] He believes that [REDACTED] has the technical know-how and has no reason to feel that he is not a very good O&M officer.

4. He says that he has had little or no contact with [REDACTED] and has no reason whatever to believe that he is not on the job.

5. [REDACTED] appears to be a good, levelheaded, competent individual who is very enthusiastic about his work and very loyal to [REDACTED]. In fact, he thinks that [REDACTED] is an exceptionally well qualified O&M officer.
